Guided Learning GTPI302

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I will track my progress using inbuilt features in Duolingo like daily streaks, level progress, weekly goals etc. • I will also practice pronunciation and listening skills through watching movies or Japanese anime. • I will reflect on my progress weekly to identify the areas which I struggle and focus on improving that.
What will I show as evidence of my learning in my project portfolio?	E.g. Report, prototype, checklist, glossary of terms, reflection, draft designs, surveys, survey analyses, interview transcripts, etc. (50-100 words).
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • My portfolio will include daily and weekly study logs available in the app. • Screenshots of completed Duolingo lessons and daily streaks. • I will also include the glossary of Japanese words and phrases I have learned. • Personal weekly reflections. • Practice reports or score (XP points) and level progress.
What else would I like to say about my project?	Share how this project is important or meaningful to you personally. E.g. I have never done marketing before. Now I have a product which I would like to market. I really hope to pick up some useful skills and ideas on how to market my product and get opportunity to meet some industry expert to mentor me.
	I always have been interested in Japanese culture, their food, language and media like anime and games. Studying this also allows me to explore this aspect and have a deep understanding about them. Learning a new language from beginning comes with a lot of challenges, by doing this project I want to overcome those difficulties and develop discipline, and build a routine; and explore something that I am genuinely interesting in. Additionally, learning such an influential language can open doors to new cultural experience, travel opportunities and even future career possibilities.
